

Good Readers Use Context Clues

Read the sentences from the story below. What do you think the underlined word means? Use clues from the sentence to help you figure it out.

- ❶ When spring rains soaked the earth and everyone else huddled in the burrow, Phyllis splashed in the puddles.

I think huddled means _____

- ❷ “You’re sopping wet!” her mother scolded!

I think scolded means _____

Good Readers Identify Causes and Effects

Answer the following question.

Why did Phyllis think there was going to be an early spring?
