Greetings Spring Valley Families!

My name is Chris Cook, and I will be working with your child this year. I am entering my 18th year of teaching, 14 of which have been in the Beverly/Rockton community, and 3 here at Spring Valley. Most of my time is spent with my seven-year-old son Colby and five-year-old daughter Cara. We love to go on family adventures, and you'll often find us exploring the trails of Dundas Valley. In the classroom, we'll be fostering a culture of curiosity while maintaining a focus on mental health and wellbeing. We work hard and play hard with a mixed model of traditional lessons and play-based inquiry. I can't wait to begin this year's adventures, together! Please take a moment to visit our classroom website, as this acts as a hub for communication and a place to find more information.

Please fill out the bottom portion of this page and return it when possible. This information is confidentially stored in your child's portfolio.

Each student in our class is a unique individual, and no one knows your child better than you! Write a few words below describing the things that make your child who they are.

What can I do to support my child?

Get connected! This is the easiest way to stay 'in the loop'. Signing up for our classroom website's email subscription ensures that the latest news and highlights are delivered to your inbox including school and classroom events, concepts we're working on, and everyone's favourite – home learning opportunities! Digital communication is great, but I still find there's no substitute for a phone call or meeting face to face. I always look forward to meeting with parents to discuss progress, or pretty much anything for that matter, at your convenience. Simply contact me at the school via email at ccook@hwdsb.on.ca.

Here's to a wonderful year ahead! ☺

Chris Cook
